

Owner Meetings

Our semi-annual owner meetings provide an environment for our owners to network with each other, anticipate what's ahead for credit unions, and learn about our most recent research and developments. We invite speakers from both inside and outside of the financial services industry to share relevant and timely insights, and some of our most recent speakers have included thought leaders from Microsoft, Lenovo, and Verizon, and we always hear from a number of our collaborative partners.

The owner meetings provide a great opportunity to meet like-minded people, hear about what they are doing in their CUs, and just discuss what the future holds for our industry.

Great job with this last owner meeting! I really thought we hit on all cylinders with every aspect. Great speakers, great projects, great updates, and great panels.
